Alcohol and Prescribed Drugs Policy

No employee may operate machinery whilst under the influence of alcohol.

Prescribed drugs that may affect the ability of an operator to perform their duties should be reported to the Managing Director as soon as possible.

You may be prosecuted for driving under the influence of prescribed medicines if you have ignored warnings.

Banned substances may never be taken by any member of staff. Employees may be prosecuted for being in possession of banned drugs by the police.